JUDGMENT DECREE AND ORDER DIRECTING SALE OF MORTGAGED PROPERTY

This cause coming on to be heard upon the plaintiff's complaint, and an order of default having been entered against the defendants, the Court finds:

1. That it has jurisdiction of the parties to and subject matter of this suit. The defendants have each been properly served, and having failed to answer or otherwise enter any appearance herein, although the time for answering has expired, are ordered defaulted.
2. The United States of America, acting through the United States Department of Agriculture, Rural Development (formerly Farmers Home Administration), made a loan to William J. Spicer and Sherrie A. Spicer a/k/a Sherrie Annette Spicer n/k/a Sherrie Chaney, secured by a mortgage dated May 9, 1994, in the total principal amount of $27,880.00 (Ex. A). This loan is evidenced by promissory notes dated May 9, 1994 (Ex. B) and August 1, 2001 (Ex. C). On April 29, 2004, the United States of America, acting through the United States Department of Agriculture, Rural Development, issued a notice of acceleration (Ex. D). The property has been abandoned as set forth in the affidavit of abandonment (Ex. E) dated December 1, 2004. The mortgage was recorded in Mortgage Record Book 284, pages

501-504, as Document No. 2869, Wayne County, Illinois.

3. That the following are the names of person who that may have claimed an interest in the above described property, but who are foreclosed from asserting their claim, if any, because of their default in this action: William J. Spicer and Sherrie A. Spicer a/k/a Sherrie Annette Spicer n/k/a Sherrie Chaney.

4. That by virtue of the mortgage and indebtedness thereby secured, the plaintiff, United States of America, has a valid and subsisting lien as follows:

Common address: South Street, POB 237, Cisne, Illinois 62837

Lot 69 and the West Half of Lot 68 in the original town, now the Village of Cisne, in Section 21, Township 1 North, Range 7 East of the Third Principal Meridian, Wayne County, Illinois.

5. That by virtue of the mortgage and the indebtedness thereby secured, as alleged in the complaint, there is due the plaintiff, the United States of America, as follows:

(a) For its own use and benefit for the costs of this suit and for:

U.S. Attorney's docket and recording fees . . .	$ 286.00
Title expenses	$ 437.50
TOTAL	$ 723.50

(b) For the use and benefit of the plaintiff, holder of the note secured by the mortgage aforesaid, but subject and subordinate to the lien for payment of the items mentioned in subparagraph (a) of this paragraph:

Unpaid principal balance	$ 27,626.28
Subsidy recapture paid	$ 1,068.00
Accrued interest at $4.4508 per day due and unpaid as of September 30, 2005 $ 2,490.81

Total amount due plaintiff as of September 30, 2005, exclusive of foreclosure costs $31,185.09

- (c) In addition, the plaintiff may be compelled to advance various sums of money in payment of costs, fees, expenses, and disbursements incurred in connection with the foreclosure, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, filing fees, stenographer's fees, witness fees, costs of publication, costs of procuring and preparing documentary evidence, and costs of procuring abstracts of title, certificates, foreclosure minutes, and a title insurance policy.
- (d) Under the terms of the mortgage, all such advances, costs and other fees, expenses, and disbursements are made a lien upon the mortgaged real estate and the plaintiff is entitled to recover all such advances, costs, expenses, and disbursements, together with interest on all advances at the rate provided in the mortgage, or, if no rate is provided therein, at the statutory judgment rate, from the date on which such advances are made.
- (e) In order to protect the lien of the mortgage, it may or has become necessary for plaintiff to pay taxes and assessments which have been or may be levied upon the mortgaged real estate.
- (f) In order to protect and preserve the mortgaged real estate, it may or been become necessary for the plaintiff to make such repairs to the real estate as may or have reasonably been deemed necessary for the proper preservation thereof.
- (g) Under the terms of the mortgage, any money so paid or expended has or will become an additional indebtedness secured by the mortgage and will bear interest from the date such monies are advanced at the rate provided in the mortgage, or, if no rate is provided, at the statutory judgment rate.

6. That Wayne County, Illinois, has a valid lien on the above-described property for taxes for the year 2005, and the property will be sold subject to the interest of Wayne County, resulting from taxes, general or special, which are a valid lien against the above-described property.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED by this Court that judgment is entered against William J. Spicer and Sherrie A. Spicer a/k/a Sherrie Annette Spicer n/k/a Sherrie Chaney for $31,908.59, and unless the defendants and their assigns and successors in interest to the above-described property pay to the plaintiff, the United States of America, acting through the Farmers Home Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, within three days from the date of this decree the sum of $31,908.59 with attorney's fees and court costs with lawful interest to be computed thereon from this date until paid, the real estate described in paragraph 4 of this decree shall be sold at public sale to the highest bidder for 10% at time of sale and balance within 72 hours, subject to taxes, general or special, due and owing to Wayne County, Illinois, by the United States Marshal for the Southern District of Illinois at the front door of the Wayne County Courthouse in the City of Fairfield, Illinois.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that judgment is entered in favor of the United States and against William J. Spicer and Sherrie A. Spicer a/k/a Sherrie Annette Spicer n/k/a Sherrie Chaney. The real estate shall be sold free and clear of any claimed lien of William J. Spicer and Sherrie A. Spicer a/k/a Sherrie Annette Spicer n/k/a Sherrie Chaney.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the United States Marshal for the Southern District of Illinois give public notice of the time, place, and terms of such sale, together with a description of the premises as referred to in paragraph 4 of this decree to be sold, by previously publishing the same once each week for three (3) consecutive weeks as provided by law in a secular newspaper of general publication in the State of Illinois, the first publication to be not less than four weeks before the date of such sale; that said United States Marshal may adjourn the sale so advertised by giving public notice by proclamation; that the plaintiff or any of the parties to this cause may become the purchaser or purchasers at such sale; that upon such sale being made, the United States Marshal shall execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers a certificate of sale and that said certificate of purchase shall be freely assignable by endorsement thereon.

This is a foreclosure of a mortgage of residential real estate.

The amount required to redeem shall consist of the total balance due as declared above plus interest thereon at the statutory rate hereunder and all additional costs and other expenses allowed by the Court.

If the purchaser at the judicial sale of residential real estate is a mortgagor who is a party to this proceeding or her nominee, and if the sale price is less than the amount required to redeem specified in 735 ILCS § 5/15-1604, an owner of redemption has a special right to redeem for a period ending 30 days after the date the sale is confirmed by paying the mortgagee the sale price plus all additional costs and expenses incurred by the mortgagee set forth in the report of sale and confirmed by this Court.

The above-described mortgaged real estate has been abandoned. Consequently, the redemption period pursuant to 735 ILCS § 5/15-1603 shall end at the later of the expiration of the period of reinstatement as provided in 735 ILCS § 5/15-1602, or 30 days after entry of this judgment of foreclosure pursuant to 735 ILCS § 5/15-1603(b)(4).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that out of the proceeds of such sale the United States Marshal shall retain his disbursements and fees, and out of the remainder of said proceeds he shall pay to the plaintiff $31,908.59, together with lawful interest to be computed thereon to the date of this decree and any court costs of this action in its behalf. Said United States Marshal shall take receipts from the respective parties from whom he may make payments aforesaid and file the same together with his report of sale to this Court, and in case said property shall sell for a sum more than sufficient to make the aforesaid payments, then after making said payments he shall bring such surplus monies into Court without delay for further distribution by order of this Court.

After the 30th day said foreclosure sale is confirmed, the holder of the certificate of sale shall be entitled to immediate possession of the real estate upon payment of the sale purchase price, without notice to any party or further order of the Court. In default of mortgagors so doing, an order of ejectment shall issue.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED upon or after confirmation of sale, the person who conducted the sale or the Court shall execute a deed to the holder of the certificate of sale sufficient to convey title, which deed shall identify the Court and the caption of the case in which judgment was entered authorizing issuance of the deed. Signature and the recital in the deed of the title or authority of the person signing the deed as grantor, of authority pursuant to this judgment, and of the giving of the notices required by statute shall be sufficient proof of the facts recited and of such authority to execute the deed, but such deed shall not be construed to contain any covenant on the part of the person executing it.

Delivery of the deed executed on the sale of the real estate, even if the purchaser or holder of the certificate of sale is a party to the foreclosure, shall be sufficient to pass the title thereto. Such conveyance shall be an entire bar of (i) all claims of parties to the foreclosure and (ii) all claims of any non-record claimant who is given notice of the foreclosure as provided by statute.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that if the monies arising from said sale shall be insufficient to pay sums due to plaintiff with interest as aforesaid after deducting the costs as aforesaid, said United States Marshal shall specify the amount of said deficiency in his report.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Court hereby retains jurisdiction of the subject matter of this cause and the parties thereto for the purpose of enforcing this decree and that said United States Marshal shall report his actions and doings in the premises in this Court at the earliest possible time to which time this cause is hereby continued.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: November 16, 2005.
